GEORGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

GEORGETOWN, July 17-12 m The examination and exhibition at the Fe nale Catholic Free School came off yesterday. The exercises were of a highly interesting character. This school is under the control of the Sisters of Charity, at the Convent, and is in a very flourishing condition. Handsome pre-miums were awarded to the scholars.

GEORGETOWN SCHOOL.—The exercises of this school was highly satisfactory to the citizens of the town. The examination was of such a character as to reflect great credit upon the principal, Mr. W. H. Craig, and the pupils; and the speaking and dialogues elicited universal praise, and all of them long and loud applause. And all who were present (and the large room was crowded) say it never was surpassed in the history of this school; and some premiums were awarded to an the scholars, and the donation of Mr. Wm. Corcoran, esq., to business in all departments.

Political affairs are tranquil. The Emperor's Political affairs are tranquil. Hamilton Moreland, twenty-five dollars each, and they presented four of their classmates with a handsome, heavy silver pencil each; and D. FORGIVENESS .- The most difficult of all the virtues is forgiveness. Mayhew, in his recent work on the London poor, gives the following as the language of a little coster-boy, when questioned about the Saviour: "I have heerd a little about our Saviour-they seem to say he was a goodish kind of a man; but if he says as how a cove's to forgive a feller as hits you, I should say he knowed nothing about it."

That's the practical belief of many who have greater advantages than the poor coster-boy.

> THE CHRISTIAN STATESMAN. A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

Devoted to African Colonization and Civilization,

Devoted to African Colonization and Civilization, to Literature and General Intelligence.

THE undersigned propose to publish, in the City of Washington, a weekly newspaper, bearing the above title, and dedicated to a sound morality in Politics, to the Union of the States, to the cause of African Colonization and Civilization, and to all topics of a high and general interest to their country and mankind. They will endeavor to impress upon the People and Government of the United States and of the several States the importance of colonizing in Africa, with their own consent, the free people of color of this country, and such as may become free. They will communicate to the public all important information they may obtain in regard to the Geography, Exploration, Resources, Commerce and Population of Africa; the state of the Slave Trade, and the measures best adapted for its suppression; and will enforce the duty of union among all Christian denominations in efforts to diffuse the knowledge of our Arts, Liberty, and Christianity, among the barbarous people of that Continent.

They will aim to render the journal an instructive and useful Family Newspaper, and to secure for its columns, as the public favor shall enable them, contributions, literary and scientific, of decided merit.

The Chaistian Statesman will be of the size of the Mome Journal or National Eva, and exceed in size the Intelligencer or the Union of this city; and, with but few advertisements, will be mearly filled with matter designed to see of interest to its readers.

It will be printed with new type, on fine white paper, and, in mechanical execution, be equal to the best newspapers in the country.

Terms.—The Christian Statesman will be two dollars a year, payable in advance.

LEVERETT'S LATIN LEXICON, NLARGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati and Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Lue-nemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexineman, emoracing, also, the Cassacia districtions words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddie. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word vithout a figure is fully classical and Ciceronian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues; it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Fraund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than its predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneeding troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investiga-tion of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility of traders in the U. States. Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long es-tablished offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe unequalled.

we are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.

Having full lists and reports of nearly all the Attorneys in the United States, we are at all times prepared to furnish you, gratuitously, the names of good and responsible lawyers in any part of the United States and Canadias.

Connected with our Agency is a Commissioner for nearly all the States, who is enabled to afford every facility and legal form for preparing accounts, &c., for immediate use, thereby avoiding a delay often fatal to the collection of a debt.

We beg to announce to the public that we have entered into connexion with the heaviest transportation house on the Isthmus, who are bound to us to transport our goods from Chagres to Panama, is advance of all other expresses, and having made arrangements with the U. S. Mail and all other steamers on the Pacific, for the carriage of our goods, we are prepared to guarantee their delivery in San Francisco within a specified time.

In addition to the superior qualities of the line, for the transaction of Merchandite, its manifest advantages over the U. S. Mail and all other competitors, in the transportation of letters and parcels between the Pacific and Atlantic States, are well known and already generally appreciated by the public. The value of a mercantile letter, delivered by us three or four days in advance of all other competition, being properly estimated.

We have also established agencies in GUAYAQUIL, CALLAO, and VALPARAISO, for which ports, and other cities on the South American coast, we are prepared to receive LETTERS and PARCELS, which will be promptly despatched to their destination by our agent in Panama.

The mail for South America is made up but once a month.
